Running for others

III Solidarity Run

On the 5th of March, Andel and Fuenllana collaborated with AMAS Group, organizing the 3rd Solidary Run for intellectual disabilities. More than 700 runners joined and the money helped those affected by these disabilities.

The day...

It was a cloudy Sunday morning. The day started with a guided warm-up by professionals from the FITSTAR Gym of Alcorcón. Parents, grandparents and children danced at the same time!

There were different categories depending on the age. Then, runners were placed at the starting line. After a shot... Everyone took off like a bullet! At the end, there was time for talking and drinking refreshments ! It was a great morning for family and sport.

Thanks to...

Volunteers, teachers, professional athletes like Rita Oraa, politicians like Susana Mozo, and companies like Scolarest, Signled or Danvers & Warnes.

What will happen in Cardiff?

The 62nd Edition

On Saturday, the 3rd of June, the big final of UEFA Champions League will be played in Millennium Stadium of Cardiff, Wales.

Real Madrid and Juventus will try to bring the cup to Spain, or Italy... Either way, we will see one of the most anticipated football matches of the year.

Both teams just won the respective leagues (La Liga & Calcio Serie A).

The road of Real Madrid

The club will fight for the 12nd Champions League in its history. After the group stage, the team advanced beating Napoli. Then, Real Madrid beat Bayern Munich in quarter finals, and Atletico de Madrid in the semifinals.

The road of Juventus

The Italian club will try to get its 3rd Champions League. The last times they won the cup was in the 1984/85 and 1995/96 seasons... After the group stage, the team passed against Porto FC. Later, Juventus sent Barcelona FC home and advanced to the semifinals. Then, the team beat Monaco.

Curiosities...

An Italian team wins the Champions League every seven years... This is the 7th year.

Real Madrid could be the second team in history to win 2 Champions Leagues consecutively.

Bye, VII Promotion of Andel

On May 9th, 2nd Bachillerato students celebrated their emotive graduation act with their families, friends and teachers. This is the VII Promotion of Andel, which started in 1st Primary School. The act started with a Holy Mass. Then, the ceremony consisted of three speeches: First, Mr. Fernando Martín; Secondly, Pedro Sandín; and third, School Principal, Mr. Álvaro Zabala. Following that, each student took a white pennant and a rose which were given to each mother.

At the end, people snacked on some cokes and sandwiches. Of this promotion, there is a great variety of aspirations. They will be engineers, professors, doctors, politicians...

All of them will go to the best universities of Spain: niversidad Complutense of Madrid, Universidad Politécnica, Universidad de Navarra... But first, they have to prepare for the EvAU Exams!
